

Bill Lynch

5103 S Old Oak Way, Springfield, MO 65810

WDLynch@mizzou.edu • 417.207.7983

Summary of Experience

Over 10 years of curriculum development and teaching college level art and design both traditionally and online. Have held tenure-track appointments along with various adjunct and guest lecturer positions. Have taught over 30 different courses, 135 sections of these courses respectively and provided instruction to well over 1000 students.

- Instructor, Dixie State College of Utah, St. George, Utah (2002- 2005)
Developed and presented college-level courses in Visual Technologies and Fine Art to students in the school's four-year degree programs traditionally and online. Orientation speaker, academic advisor, senior portfolio instructor and career advisor.
- Instructor, Art Institute of Houston, Houston, Texas (1997-2002)
Developed and presented a wide range of four-year degree program college coursework. Open house speaker, orientation speaker, academic advisor, senior portfolio instructor and career advisor. Collaborated with colleagues on pioneering development and delivery of online graphic design education, what is now the accredited four-year degree program offered by the Art Institute Online.

Professional Efficiencies

Strong delivery skills as designer, lecturer, teacher and technologist.

Excellent relationship builder with students, faculty, and administration.

Excellent interpersonal, writing, verbal communication and technical skills.

Education

University of Missouri, Columbia MO

PhD student, Art Education

MEd, Educational Technology 2002

Central Missouri State University, Warrensburg, MO

BFA, Graphic Design 1993

Additional

Curriculum Vitae available at <http://www.lynchartdesign.com>